

11 November 2017

MEDIA RELEASE

2017 Remembrance Day Commemoration

On Saturday 11 November 2017 Moorabbin Airport Corporation representatives participated in Remembrance Day commemorations at the Cheltenham Moorabbin Returned Services League (RSL) memorial.

Airport CEO, Paul Ferguson, said:

The Remembrance Day commemorations held by Cheltenham Moorabbin RSL are an important annual event for our local community. This was the 99th anniversary of the Armistice that ended the Great War (1914 – 18).

"Moorabbin Airport values the contributions made by brave Australians, past and present, in service of our country. Moorabbin Airport has always had strong ties with our Australian Defence Force (ADF) and we were proud to acknowledge and thank our returned service personnel."

"We congratulate the sub branch for its excellent delivery of the day".

Glenn Sanders ACCM, General Manager, Bentleigh RSL said:

"The RSL appreciates the ongoing support from local organisations such as Moorabbin Airport who continue to assist us with delivering and maintaining our welfare programs and sponsoring important RSL events each year."

Representatives from the RSL, ADF, all levels of Government, Moorabbin Airport, the Moorabbin Air Museum squadron of the Australian Air League and community members were in attendance at the service and subsequent function.

Ends.

For further information please contact:

Matthew Marais on (03) 8587 8000

or via email to admin@moorabbinairport.com.au

About Moorabbin Airport Corporation

Moorabbin Airport is located 21 kilometres south east of the Melbourne CBD. The airport provides a combination of aviation and business services. More than 4,500 people work in the 250 businesses in aviation, retail and business park precincts on the 294-hectare site. With 280,000 aircraft movements annually, the airport is one of the busiest in Australia. Over the past 18 months $150 million has been invested into the airport, 1,000 jobs created and 1,500 pilots have been trained.